Fordham Prep Trounces

C. C. N. Y. Freshmen, 14-6

Coach McCarthy's Fordham Prep eleven handed City College freshmen the yearlings' first defeat of the season yesterday at Fordham Field by the score of 14 to 6, a successful forward pass attack in the closing minutes of play preventing C. G. N. Y. from taking a humiliating whitewash. The prep eleven avenged last year's defeat. Phil Weis, Fordham Prep's triple threat star, scored both touchdowns and three points afterward, while Jim Aluribri, coaptain, ably assisted him in advancing the bail by brilliant runs. The cubs did not make a first down through the line. A forward pass, Motts Cohen to Plaut, for thirty-five yards, resulted in the Lavender's score. The lineup:
